

FAQs

What are risk areas, high incidence areas, and areas of variant of concern?

Classification as a risk area, a high incidence area or area of variant of concern is the result of a joint analysis and decision-making process by the Federal Ministry of Health, the Federal Foreign Office and the Federal Ministry of the Interior, Building and Community. This classification as a risk area is based on a two-step assessment.

Further information and the list of the areas can be found here. For the English list, please click on the link under the headline.

Do fully vaccinated people need to go into quarantine?

Currently the same procedure applies for all people, vaccinated or not.

Is the hotel gym open during the IDM?

At the moment, the gym is closed. A reopening is possible, depending on the restrictions regarding the Corona virus in Berlin.

While being in quarantine, do we have to stay in the room?

If you have to quarantine, you need to stay in your room. Food will be brought to your door.

Is it possible to share rooms during quarantine and during the IDM?

If you arrived together, it is possible to quarantine together as well.

Do we have to quarantine if we take a PCR test before arrival?

The PCR test does not have an impact on the quarantine. All exceptions from the quarantine can be found here.

Are there exceptions for the quarantine?

Yes there are. If you are part of an international sports event and coming from a risk area you do not have to quarantine.

Please contact the LOC via e-mail under woelke@bsberlin.de to be provided with a document of confirmation.

Travelers who have visited a risk area, high incidence area or virus variant area in the last ten days before entering Germany must register at www.einreiseanmeldung.de before arriving in Germany and carry proof of registration with them upon entry.

At the moment, no travelers from areas of variant of concern are allowed to enter Germany. Please find the statement here.

We booked the wrong number of rooms. Is it possible to change the booking?

It is possible to change the booking at any time, depending on the hotel's capacity. However, any changes to the booking after 30 April 2021 will be at your expense.

For changes, please contact the LOC via e-mail under hotel@bsberlin.de

Are there testing opportunities for the athletes/staff before the departure?

Any testing that is required before the departure needs to be organized by the team.

For testing opportunities in Berlin, please follow the link: <https://test-to-go.berlin/?lang=en>

Is it possible to register additional staff?

Depending on the number of registered participants, we will consider accepting requests for additional staff after the entry deadline on 26 April 2021.

To request additional staff please contact the LOC via e-mail under meldung@idm-schwimmen.de
